

I would like to register my support for the current Indiana law limiting the access that telemarketers (including banks) have to my home telephone number.

The CBA's attempt to use the established business relationship exemption should be denied.

thanks,

Neal Cawi